About Agulhas

Founded in 2003, Agulhas Applied Knowledge is a leading UK-based provider of evaluation, technical assistance, learning and knowledge in support of international cooperation on global challenges. We work with donors, multilateral organisations, foundations and NGOs, combining a deep knowledge of international development and sustainability with the practical skills to deliver results. In 2021, we became an employee-owned company, a move which reflects the company's core values of equity and cooperation, and we achieved B-Corp certification in July 2023.

Since our inception, we have provided strategic advice on aid programmes and development policy to the UK government, other DAC countries, multilateral organisations, developing country governments, philanthropic foundations and NGOs. We specialise in strategic reviews and evaluations and in knowledge management, helping our clients to develop monitoring and evaluation systems, strengthen their organisational learning systems and improve the quality and value for money of their programming.

As an employee-owned firm our values are grounded in collaboration, integrity, and shared purpose. Every member of our team has a stake in the success and direction of the organisation, shaping how we work, who we work with, and the change we aim to enable. As a certified B Corp, we are committed to meeting high standards of social and environmental impact. Our six principles guide who we are, how we work and how we treat our colleagues, partners and clients: commitment, effectiveness, openness, integrity, respect and equity.
